Euphoria Station

Ronald Van Deurzen kicks off the beginning to the emphatic Paradise Road with a vast and powerful piano, a single that also contains some quite scene setting and emotive Harmonica work, hats off to Tollak Ollestad for that. The song is a driving force all of its own, and urges seizing the moment on the road to paradise, a true rock classic if I have ever heard one, and of course the longest piece off the release at just shy of ten minutes.

The chemistry of the band is certainly one that works so well and symbiotically, giving us the ever eager listener a wonderfully full musical experience; Euphoria Station are indeed a force for good in this land of rock.
