Melany Thompson & Elson Complex

I was just thinking on my third listen to this single, that it has to be one of the nicest songs I've heard released in 2020; there is such a beautifully layered performance here from the artists Melany Thompson (Piano) and Elson Complex (Acoustic Guitar).

There is also a truly warming and hope filled musical narrative to be gained here too, in what is a splendid symbiotically passionate performance on piano and acoustic guitar by the artists.

This single comes from a compilation album entitled Angels Among Us released by Yellow Rose Records, but this single has all the hall marks of a huge hit for the artists with ease and one that is very easy for me to recommend without a shadow of a doubt.
