

Down For The Count

By

Ma9Na

Written by

Steve Sheppard

I would say without doubt that this new single Down for the Count by Ma9Na is one of the most unique rock singles I have heard for many, many years. This is a driven piece, the engine room of Bass and Drums, both played by the artist are literally on fire and completely unstoppable.

Lyricaly the theme is deep and moody, and takes the listener to all the dark corners that exists in society today; the vocal style was equally impressive and reminded me of work I had heard recently from The Graham Bonnet Band.

A tip of the hat to guitarists Gerry Murrell and Paul Kostromin and an old friend of ours in Harvey Summers on various keyboards. Down For the Count is a breath taking new single by Ma9Na that demands to be listened to at all costs, its power rock at it's very best.