Award winning and nominated ambient artist Michelle Qureshi has a new single that has hit the airwaves with a real rush of energy, one that has seen the said composition “Inside the Lightbox” feature several times on One World Music Radio shows and playlists.

Qureshi’s talents for creating and feeling such wonderful textures of tone in her compositions are becoming legendary in the genre. Inside the Lightbox is a ten plus minute opus of calming waves of sound that seems to resonate around the listener on a multitude of levels.

This is one masterful and extremely clever arrangement; while one listens you can enjoy a deep sense of ambience that manifests an entire art gallery of musical images. I personally cannot stop playing this single, it is extremely addictive in a vibrant, yet tranquil way, and to simply float within its energy is a treat on its own.

Inside the Lightbox is a single that the legions of Qureshi’s fans will be eager to add to their ever grown musical playlists, also for those listeners of quality tunes, that like adding truly great ambient vibrations into their hearts and minds and musical souls, this is a release thoroughly recommended indeed.
