This latest offering from Marlowe Carruth is as soft and smooth as they come, her latest single will echo over the years as a fine example of perfection in arrangement in the piano with instrumentation genre.

A Shepherd's Wonder has a sense of awe and admiration built into the composition, the crescendos are perfectly delicious and all goes to manifest what would make an amazing sound track for a movie with ease.

Her beautifully fluent style is a pleasure to listen to and we can almost be right there with the artist in this most spectacular of pieces.

If you wish to buy yourself something so incredibly moving and emotive, something so pristinely created and produced, and performed with such passion, then you really need to look no further than A Shepherd's Wonder by Marlowe Carruth, it ticks all the boxes and then some.
