Claudio Casanueva is one of the foremost electronic musicians of our day, his tones and ambience has been felt worldwide and he is back with a single called Cyclops.

I adore music like this, it is ambient, but encapsulating, it's a voyage of music that takes you on a journey to the land of the Cyclops itself, the smooth narrative is sublime in creating a perfect film score sound track.

Through the tones of this beautiful work one could easily be transported to another realm where anything exists that's mystical, and shrouded in the mists of a magical island's determination to keep its inhabitants secret to the gaze of the mortal world outside.

Cyclops by Claudio Casanueva is an outstanding picturesque work of musical narrative by the artist, and one I find so very easy to recommend. This is one of those singles that will have you reaching for the repeat button at the conclusion of the piece every time and a sanctuary of calm to escape to at the end of a busy day.
