Chart topping Lisa Swerdlow, fresh from her success with her big hit Still Here, is back with another new single entitled Listening from the Heart. The strings work in a perfect unison with her memorable piano performance and are simply delightful, artfully moving and emotive to listen to.

Swerdlow's passionate performance is breath-taking and there is something of a David Lanz and Jenifer Thomas about this new single that will thrill the legions of her fans and listeners, and very possibly propel her to the apex of the charts once again, music of utter quality indeed can be found right here.
