

Nostalgia de Navidad

By

Natalie Jean

Written by

Steve Sheppard

There are few who have such a powerful vocal range and a textured voice as Natalie Jean, and here on this latest single, Nostalgia de Navidad, she brings us something that reminds me of Astrud Gilberto, in style at times, and is layered with such a wonderful Latin vibe it is a real pleasure to listen to.

This vibrant and rhythmic offering is simply addictive and I could see this becoming a huge success for her. Jean's vocals are pristine and colourful, but also tempered beautifully to adapt to a track of this ilk.

Full marks to Bruno Vallelunga and Danilo Gossain who wrote the song and of course to Natalie Jean who produced and arranged it, she has given her voice to something quite fun, compelling and exciting, but the smoothness of the entire project is the winner for me, this is one very stylish song, superbly sung.