

Christmas Is the Time

By

Kerry Barnes

Written by

Steve Sheppard

I must say after a few listens to this latest single by pianist Kerry Barnes I was extremely impressed, her performance style was flourishing, sensitive, yet all empowering and played with an almost lavish style as well at times, and all this on her latest offering called Christmas Is The Time.

In just 3 minutes Barnes takes on a musical sojourn that is captivating and intriguing, it feels like we are on a musical voyage of suspense, one that is fun, but contains some clever elements of mystery and imagination along the way.

I rate this to be one of the most original and truly crafted musical ideas I have heard for some time and it is my hope that the fans of the piano genre out there will give this one a listen; they will be missing out on a real gem if they don't.