

Archangel Metatron

By

Claudio Casanueva

Written by

Steve Sheppard

There are few artists that can paint with music such illustrious and beautiful soundscapes as Claudio Casanueva, his synth work is utterly sublime and here on his single Archangel Metatron we have a piece perfectly created into this realm from another.

The delicate synths and keyboards on this offering manifest every single attribute of this angelic deity; there is a delightful depth of tone here that is so transcendent, and when one listens to a masterpiece like this, one can find themselves willingly transported up and into the angelic realms, a very reverential and masterful composition indeed.