

My Life's Work

By

Mary Lydia Ryan

Written by

Steve Sheppard

The delicacy of this brand new single by pianist/vocalist Mary Lynda Ryan is one of the most pristine in quality and texture I think I have ever heard. Her performance on piano is deeply moving, with a little classical edge at times as well.

What sharpens the musical palette here is the simply delicious vocals, ones that are utterly heartfelt in their presentation. Imagine putting all that you are on display to another and waiting for a response, that sense of anticipation, vulnerability and honesty is beautifully portrayed here, in one of the most moving and emotive singles I have heard for absolutely ages. My Life's Work by Mary Lydia Ryan is certainly one to recommend.